

GAMES WORKSHOP

THE LORD OF THE RINGS

THE FELLOWSHIP OF THE RING

Campaign Scenario

Trapped in the Misty Mountains!

There are many dangers that roam the lands. The Misty Mountains themselves have long been home to vile goblins and other darker things.

Models used

Forces of Good:

- The full Fellowship

Forces of Evil:

- 25 Moria Goblins with hand weapons and shields or spears
- 10 Moria Goblins with bows

Description

The goblins have sprung their trap, catching the Fellowship deep in a rocky ravine without much hope of escape!

Layout

On a table 4x4 or larger, set up a path that runs through rocky terrain. There should be at least 12" between the rocky precipices. The rocky precipices on either side counts as impassible terrain, creating a small pathway for the Fellowship to move through.

Starting Positions

The forces of Good start at one end of the path.

The Evil forces start anywhere on the board, but no closer than 12" of any of the forces of Good.

Objectives

The forces of Good must fight their way out of the ambush and make it off the opposite edge of the board!

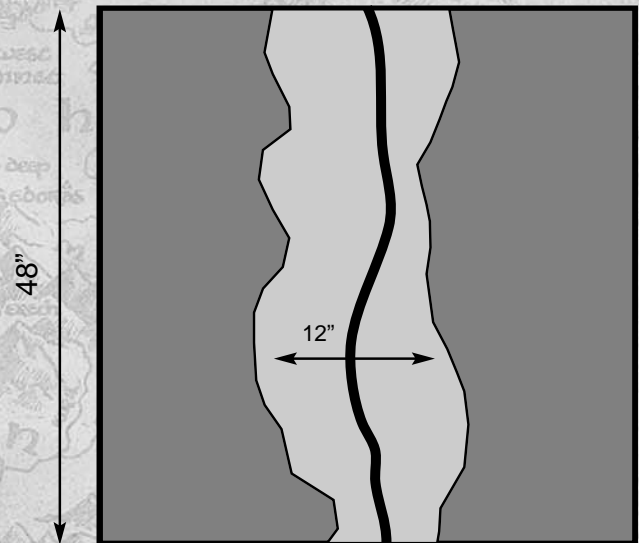

If at least half of the forces of Good manage to make it off the board (including Frodo) then they will win. In addition, if all the goblins are killed or routed off the board the Fellowship will win.

If at least half of the forces of Good are slain or if Frodo is slain the Evil side wins.

The game is played for 1 hour or until one side has met its objectives. If the 1 hour lapses before the game is over then it is considered to be a Draw.

Special Rules

- The Moria Goblins can start on the impassible terrain and move about on it with no penalties.
- None of the Fellowship have Elven cloaks.
- Frodo is equipped with Sting and the Mithril coat.
